

3rd RoboDEX Nagoya to be held as scheduled from Oct.21st to 23rd at Portmesse Nagoya, and the “virtual” version also to be held at the same time

3rd RoboDEX Nagoya, Japan’s leading exhibition for robotics technologies, is going to be held from Oct.21st to 23rd at Portmesse Nagoya (Japan) as scheduled.

The expected numbers of exhibitors and visitors are 750* and 45,000* respectively. (*expected including concurrent shows.)

Besides the exhibitions, 140 conference sessions by electronics/manufacturing/automotive industry leaders, etc. will be held.

3rd RoboDEX Nagoya Also Goes Virtual

Under the current situation caused by COVID-19, Show Management has decided to host “3rd RoboDEX Nagoya –VIRTUAL–”, a “virtual” version of the exhibition, at the same time as the “physical” show at Portmesse Nagoya.

Registration for the virtual exhibition is now open. After your registration, your login information will be sent to you about 2 weeks before the show.

What can visitors do at “3rd RoboDEX Nagoya –VIRTUAL–”?

Visitors of the virtual exhibition can browse virtual booths of RoboDEX Nagoya and its concurrent shows’ exhibitors, have video calls/chat with exhibitors, and download exhibits’ brochures.

Show Management has already received registrations from Global leading companies such as Panasonic, HITACHI, Kawasaki Heavy Industries, Mitsubishi Electric, SHARP, Toyota, Honda, Nissan, Samsung Electronics, LG Electronics, HUAWEI TECHNOLOGIES, MediaTek, ASE, ASUS, etc. (Including concurrent shows.)
